

BIBLES
BADGES
BUSINESS

JOIN

Granite Staters for Common Sense Immigration Reform & Bibles, Badges and Business for Immigration Reform

For a panel discussion on immigration reform

Thursday, February 4, 2016
10 a.m. EST

Raymond Baptist Church
145 NH Route 27
Raymond, NH

Amid a heated immigration conversation on the campaign trail in New Hampshire and elsewhere, faith leaders, trade experts, immigration attorneys, and high-tech business leaders will gather to underscore the positive impact of immigrants in the Granite State and highlight the need for broad immigration reform. This event is free and open to the public.

Event Speakers:

Kevin McBride, Senior Pastor, Raymond Baptist Church

Dawn Wivell, New Hampshire International Trade and Business Expert

Kedar Gupta, Founder, ARC Energy

Eva Castillo, New Hampshire Immigrant Project Organizer, Massachusetts Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Coalition

Randall Drew, Immigration Attorney

Moderated by Scott Spradling, Former WMUR-TV Political Director and Anchor

Additional speakers may be confirmed.

For more information, please contact:
Scott Spradling, 603-724-8092, scott@spradlinggroup.com
Adam Estle, 623-388-1767, aestle@immigrationforum.org

Granite Staters for Common Sense Immigration Reform - <http://www.immigrationreformnh.com>

Bibles, Badges and Business is a project of the National Immigration Forum and the National Immigration Forum Action Fund.

WWW.BBBIMMIGRATION.ORG