Immigrants are indispensable to the workforce: Construction sector

1 out of 4 foreign-born workers are employed in construction

Immigrants account for:

- 24% of the construction industry workforce
- 13% of the U.S. population
- 17% of the total U.S. workforce

1 out of 5 immigrant entrepreneurs own construction businesses

90% of construction contractors found it moderately difficult or difficult to find skilled workers in 2017

864,000 new jobs are expected to be created within the construction sector by 2026

Sources