

Immigrants in the Home Health Care Industry

Immigrants currently represent 17% of the 12.4 million people working in the health care industry.

Immigrants working in the health care sector make up 24% of direct care health positions such as home health care workers.

Rural areas have shortages in all types of health care workers, data has shown there are roughly 20% more aides employed in metropolitan areas than in rural areas.

Between 2014-2024, the health care sector is expected to increase by

2.3 million jobs

From 2016 to 2026, jobs for personal care aides and home health aides are expected to grow by more than

1 million jobs

