“Being in the ministry of serving the immigrant community has felt lonely and very challenging in the last 5 years. Seeing people from many different places, nationalities, positions, political and religious beliefs come together, wrestle together, process challenges together, and hope together has made feel like I’m part of a huge community, that I’m not alone in this, we are not alone in this journey. It was very encouraging!”

“I liked everything about it, it was beautifully orchestrated and masterfully produced. The topics were comprehensive and all the talent was first rate (and Ali I liked your jokes!). I took a binder-full of notes and was so surprised that the entire week I was riveted.”
